++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Few showers in west Wednesday, otherwise dry with sunny spells.

This Evening and Tonight:
Clear spells and, especially in the west, showers through the evening, the showers becoming less frequent and lighter overnight. Mainly dry across Easter Ross and Inverness, and turning chilly in rural parts as the occasionally strong winds ease. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Wednesday:
A few showers across the Western Isles and the far north and west of the mainland, otherwise dry with sunny spells. Cloud increasing in evening with west coast gales developing. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
An unsettled end to the week with showers or longer spells of occasionally heavy rain with occasionally strong, mainly southwesterly winds.
